Frank Blair's Revolutionary Letter.

A REBEL VIEW OF IT.

The Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche quotes General Frank Blair's letter to Col. Brodhead in its issue of the 21st inst., and says:

For uttering similar sentiments to the above we have been denounced and called imprudent. Had the above extract appeared in the Avalanche as editorial, the political fossils would have raised their hands in holy horror and stigmatized us a revolutionist. We would have been taunted with the worn out stereotyped complaint that such independent expressions injure the Northern Democracy and the Southern people in the North. But, strange to say, it was the publication of the letter, from which we take the above extracts, that secured Mr. Blair his nomination for the Vice-Presidency. Thus it will be seen that the North is far ahead of the South. They are ripe for revolution. They are determined that all the infamous and unconstitutional legislation of Radicalism shall be wiped out. The position which Gen. Blair has taken, strong as it is, had been echoed by the Democracy of the North. This fact shows an intensity of feeling against Radicalism more bitter than that which exists in the South.

In the Senate of the United States a few days since, Mr. Morton of Indiana held up Mr. Blair's letter, and characterized it as a proclamation of war. In reply, the Northern people announced that the Reconstruction acts are illegal, unconstitutional and void; that they are conceived in iniquity and brought forth in sin, and without warrant of law; that they do violence to every vital principle on which our institutions are founded; that they are arbitrary, unjust and despotic, and that they shall be wiped out. The soldiers of the North proclaim that they fought to restore the Union, but that ten States are yet out of the Union, that peace has not been restored, and that tranquility and fraternity can never exist under the Reconstruction acts, and that they are willing to fight for four years longer to secure a restoration of the Union. The flat has gone forth that the infamous measures which an infamous Congress has adopted, solely to secure the Radical party in power, shall be disregarded and void, and the people restored to those rights and liberties of which they have been robbed. The people of the North begin to learn that there is no appeasing of Radicalism. We hope the political fossils will survive a perusal of Mr. Blair's bold position, and in order to prevent their lavishing their usual censure upon the Avalanche, we wish them to distinctly understand that the above extract is not editorial, but the sentiments of the Democracy of the nation.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation; and whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of the limitation thereof.

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the independence of the United States the 51st.

By the Governor,
WM. P. DILLINGHAM,
Sec'y of Civil and Military Affairs.
